

Registration for ProCom event

Binding registration

You can also register by post, fax or e-mail. We will confirm your participation immediately on receiving your registration. The numbers of participants is limited to guarantee the best possible learning environment. We will register participants in the order applications are received.

Cancellation

You have the option to cancel a training course or a conference free of charge up to three weeks before the event. After that date, we will charge 100 % of the attendance fee. You can also name another participant in your stead at the start of the event.

Cancellation of events

We kindly ask your understanding if we reserve the right to cancel training sessions/conferences, e.g. due to an insufficient number of participants or illness of the trainer or force majeure. In such cases we will reimburse the participation fee. Any further claims are excluded.
